About

CARLTON MANOR

Carlton Manor was built around 1720 and was once a 315 acre farm, the largest in Holderness. Owner, Nic Marshall, is a proud Yorkshireman with close ties to the local community.

Prior to acquiring Carlton Manor in 2020, the house held a special place in his heart. Nic's daughters previously worked at the venue and Nic attended many events here. His personal connection to the property has shone through in the stunning ongoing renovations and he takes great pride in supporting local businesses, by sourcing everything he can locally.

The transformation of Carlton Manor includes the addition of the magnificent Carlton Tipi which seats 150 guests and hosts up to 200 on an evening, a complete interior redesign of the manor house which sleeps 18, and the build of 10 luxury glamping pods. The planned developments will breathe new life into this stunning venue and reflect the beauty of the surrounding East Yorkshire landscape.

The

MANOR HOUSE

Carlton Manor has recently undergone stunning renovations, with all eight bedrooms beautifully finished and ready to accommodate up to 18 guests. Many of the rooms have picturesque views of the East Yorkshire countryside.

The manor house also has a spacious kitchen at its heart, a cosy snug and plenty of nooks and crannies in which to hide away and relax with a book. The large outdoor patio, that looks out onto two acres of beautiful gardens, serves as the perfect place to entertain guests.

The

CARLTON TIPI

The magnificent Carlton Tipi brings something extraordinary to your special day. Follow the fairylights and the sounds of laughter and music down the garden path to the cosy Carlton Tipi.

With capacity for up to 150 guests to be seated around the venue, it is the perfect stage for the telling of your love story. If you should like to expand an invitation to even more guests, an additional 50 can be accommodated on an evening. Like everything at Carlton Manor, the Tipi can be decorated to your taste. So, whether it's shabby chic, modern minimalist or a completely unique theme you're after, the Carlton Tipi is yours to transform.

Designed to the highest quality, the Carlton Tipi can be custom-fit to meet the British polar winters and warm summer days. Dance the night away as the champagne flows and the whisperings of your celebrations roll out across the East Yorkshire countryside.

"Amazing venue set in the heart of the beautiful countryside just minutes from the sea. Would recommend in a heartbeat."
